History of the Class of 1953

Dear Doris,

Do you remember way back when sixteen very small and eager children began together to solve the mysteries of 'Readin', Writin', and 'Rithmetic? It's been a long time, hasn't it, but it seems like only yesterday. We were so proud when our teacher played the piano and we sang and played games. School was very new to us and we enjoyed all the things that each day brought.

As we passed from grade to grade, lessons began to be less an adventure and we crumbled and complained at how slowly the days went by. Often I think about the operettas, the surprise parties for our favorite grade teachers, and also the fruit rolls, games of cowboy and Indians and black-man.

In September, 1947, twenty nervous and excited kids enrolled in Jr. High. The high school was different and exciting even though we felt strange in our new surroundings. The Seniors seemed very grown up and the teachers seemed terribly reserved. The schedule was confusing and we missed our recesses, but it wasn't long until we wondered how we ever tolerated grade school.

Do you remember the trip to Vincennes? Mr. Mayes took our Indiana History class. Just the other day I ran across some of the pictures we had taken there. Remember the ride home?

At last we were in high school. We missed the fun of being initiated. We elected for our officers: Pres., Jim Pearman; Vice Pres., Don Robertson; Secretary, Don Reynolds; Treasurer, Ronnie Davis; Student Council, Mary Jane O'Briant and Sylvester Thomas. We chose Mr. Mayes to be our leader for this year.

At last in Sept., 1950, we were no longer green freshmen, we were sophomores. Our officers this year were: Pres., Don Reynolds; Vice Pres., Doris Risky; Secretary, Don Maloney; Treasurer, Jim Pearman; Student Council, Janice Jones and Donald Davis. Don Reel was our sponsor this year. The big event of this year was our class rings, of which we were very proud.

Then in no time at all we were juniors with a big year to look forward to--Jr. Sr. Prom and Class Play. Officers for this year were: Pres., Bob Koskovensky; Vice Pres., Carol Seebren; Secretary, Don Maloney; Treasurer, Janice Jones; Student Council, Norma Botner and Jim Pearman. Letha Trout was our sponsor this year.

At last, we are Seniors! After getting over the idea of being THE big shots, we settled down to work and elected the following officers: Pres., Bob Koskovensky; Vice Pres., Jim Pearman; Secretary, Carol Seebren; Treasurer, Betty Jones; Student Council, Bill Bradley, Don Maloney, Ronald Davis, and Norma Botner. Our sponsor for this year is Mrs. Miller. In May, 1953, fourteen sad and happy students received their diplomas.

To the faculty and good old St. V. so our thanks for a happy and enjoyable twelve years.

Your pal,

Norma Botner

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

It is a quiet evening at the home of Jim Pearman. Jim, his wife (Doris Rigsby) and their two children are watching their television set. There is going to be a special program on this evening, at least special to them because there is going to be a review of the Class of 1953 of St. Bernice High School. Jim and Doris are unable to attend because little Nicky is sick. By the way, he was named after Jim's old coach back at St. Bernice High.

As the program comes on the air, they see Bob Roskovensky, who is the guest announcer for this evening. He also has a television program of his own. For the first few minutes Bob is seen walking swiftly from place to place with some papers in his hand, trying to get the program organized and quiet the members of the class who could be there. The first person who appears on the program is Miss Carol Seebren, who was formerly the Commercial teacher at St. Bernice High, but recently went out West because she heard there were more men there. Bob greets Carol and says, "Now, Carol, here come some of our old classmates, Mrs. Sam Jackson and Mrs. Andy Jackson, who now reside in Hillsdale. They are the former Betty Jones and Treva Howe." Since they had so much practice rolling money for the class, they have been rolling pennies for the last 10 years to save for a trip.

And even the commercial is interesting to the Pearman family because it is brought to them by the Bradley Hybrid Seed Corn Co., with Bill doing his own commercials.

Well, look who's coming in now! If it isn't Ronald Davis, who is now the mayor of the big city of St. Bernice, Indiana. Ronnie flew low in his new Super Sonic Sixteen Cylinder Car to get here in time.

FLASH !!! The program is now interrupted for a bulletin. Don Maloney of the Chicago Cubs has just hit a home run in the ninth inning that has won the World Series for them. Don couldn't attend the program because of the big ball game.

Some of their other classmates are unable to attend. The first one, Jennie White, is in Europe because her husband, Scotty Bob, (Bob Scott) is a general in the Army there. Besides taking care of their children, Jennie gives dancing and singing lessons. She'd also been seen on the French stage.

Norma Botner is now a minister's wife. They leave tomorrow for Africa. Everyone is wondering how she will like it away from home, since she didn't like to travel when she was a senior.

Bob tells Carol that he read in the paper the other day that Carolyn Webster has just been offered $2,000 for her hair by a wig manufacturing company. Carolyn's hair is a very beautiful auburn, and the president (James Kyle) of the company said that the shade is very hard to find now. She is undecided whether to take the offer or not.

And the last two members of the class are Janice Jones and Mary Jane O'Briant. They have just finished a motion picture in Hollywood entitled, "Onions and Garlic". It was impossible for Janice and Mary Jane to appear on the program because of the obnoxious odor of onions and garlic that still lingers with them.

As the time comes for the program to end. Bob Roskovensky closes by playing the St. Bernice Loyalty Song on his accordain.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '53

The time has finally come for the Seniors of St. Bernice High School to depart. Before we leave, We, the Sniores, leave our last will and testament to the Faculty Members and the Class of '54.

To, Mr. Bailey, we will the ability to run the school as well as we did.
To, Mr. Cooper, we will all our Government Work Books and the questions we did not answer.
To, Mr. Day, we will all the Health tests we didn't have.
To, Mr. Ford, we will our lovely and perfect voices.
To, Mr. Beard, our trustee, we will all the names we engraved on the desks; not to mention all the broken windows.
To, Lester McCollum we will the broom to sweep up the powder and saw dust.
To, Miss Brown, we will a fountain pen that makes all A's.
To, Mrs. Connell, we will the dull study halls we skipped.
To, Mrs. Roeschlein, we will another Physica class.
To, Mrs. Miller, we will, since we know we ruined her nerves and exhausted her patience, a new set of nerves.
To, The Cooks, we will all the lunch orders we didn't turn in.
To, The Juniors, we will all the good times we have had.

CLASS OF 1954

I, Norma Botner, will my bashfulness to Carolyn Kyle.
I, Bill Bradley, will my blue "Chevy" truck to anyone that can shift it.
(How about that Tom).
I, Ronald Davis, will my well-groomed hair to Tom Vicars.
I, Treva Howe, will my height to Sue Maloney.
I, Betty Jones, will my first period office practice to Kay Housten.
I, Janice Jones, will my ability to stop a car on Main Street without killing the motor to Tom Campbell.
I, James Kyle, will my ability to go with Clinton girls to Bill Haun.
I, Don Maloney, will my ability to get kicked out of ball games to Jim Hixon.
I, Mary Jane O'Briant, will my Cheer Leader uniform to Jack Brown.
I, Jim Pearman, will my beard to Bill Haun.
I, Doris Rigby, will my ability to go steady to Opal Jordan.
I, Bob Roskovensky, will my love to Evelyn Wright.
I, Carol Seebren, will my ability to talk people into things to Ronnie Lookwood.
I, Carolyn Webster, will my long black hair to Ted Thomas.
I, Jennie White, will my long, curling eye lashes to Delores Seaton.
